

I Speak Football is a radio project to promote language learning through football and the EURO 2008 championships. Visit our website for free podcasts on football and languages. You can download them for language teaching, or re-broadcast them on your radio station or football club: www.ispeakfootball.eu

